ABORTION

ARTICLE

Abortion: Toward a Standard Based Upon Clinical Medical Signs of Life and Death (John E. Kennedy and Dr. Michael Nicolazzo)..... 545

NOTE

Demise of the Trimester Standard? City of Akron v. Akron Center for Reproductive Health, Inc..... 267

CASE NOTE

Provisions of the Michigan Public Health Code which require facilities performing first trimester abortions to provide abortion counseling, to file reports and statistical information, and to limit the performance of first trimester abortions to properly licensed physicians are constitutional; however, provisions which specifically dictate staffing, structural and equipment qualifications for such facilities are an unconstitutional infringement on the right to privacy, and provisions effectively prohibiting second trimester abortions in such facilities violate the due process clause of the fourteenth amendment. Birth Control Center, Inc. v. Reizen, 743 F.2d 352 (6th Cir. 1984)..... 619

ANTENUPTIAL AGREEMENTS

CASE NOTES

Antenuptial agreements which waive alimony or property rights upon divorce are not per se against public policy and will be enforced if fair and equitable in procurement and result. Frey v. Frey, 298 Md. 552, 471 A.2d 705 (1984)..... 295

Pre-marital agreements containing provisions for alimony and property distribution upon divorce are valid if they meet the general tests of fairness and conscionability. Wife will not be bound by an agreement where enforcement of alimony provisions would be unconscionable due to change of circumstances. Gross v. Gross, 11 Ohio St. 3d 99, 464 N.E.2d 500 (1984)..... 439

The Parental Kidnaping Prevention Act: Application and Interpretation..... 419

CASE NOTES
Divesting parent of child custody because parent remarried one of different race violates the equal protection clause of the fourteenth amendment. Palmore v. Sidoti, 104 S. Ct. 1879 (1984)..... 135
Traditional doctrinal bars to federal involvement in child custody disputes do not apply to suits brought under 28 U.S.C. § 1738A, the Parental Kidnaping Prevention Act, and, therefore, federal courts may exercise jurisdiction to enforce state court compliance with the Act when states have improperly asserted jurisdiction over a child custody case or refused to enforce another state's custody decree. Flood v. Braaten, 727 F.2d 303 (3d Cir. 1984)..... 298
In a custody dispute between a parent and a third party, the parent is entitled to custody of his or her child unless found either unfit or unable to care for the child or unless there are compelling reasons for awarding custody to the third party. Barstad v. Frazier, ____ Wis. 2d. ____, 348 N.W.2d 479 (1984)..... 442
